Dear Partner in Ministry,

The Campaign for Central Africa continues. We are on the verge of a Victory! I can taste it! At the same time, I sense that the devil wants to destroy all that has been accomplished.

We need your prayers! Without these prayers, we will fail. Without Christ, we can do nothing!

We believe that the greatest need in Central Africa is theological education. More than ninety percent of pastors in Central Africa have no training, resulting in millions of people who never hear the Gospel.

This week we are going forward with four weeks of training in four branches of Trinity Biblical Institute. Tomorrow we begin classes in Kenya; next week we will be in Eastern Uganda; the following week we will be in Western Uganda and in the fourth week we will be in Rwanda. The goal is to teach hundreds of our students the essentials of the Christian faith.

Meanwhile, we are progressing with the construction of a classroom building, a police station near our headquarters, and offices for our staff.

At last, we are ready to submit our application for the accreditation of Trinity Biblical Institute. Rwanda now requires pastors to have certificates from accredited schools, and soon the same policy will be enforced in Uganda. Pray that those who inspect our campus and application will allow us to go forward and grant us the ability to train pastors and Christian leaders at an accredited school.

To advance toward our goal of reaching across Central Africa has been very expensive. We have purchased a large compound, constructed a guest house, auditorium, kitchens, and restrooms. We have collected some 8,000 theological books and we have about 40 African teachers. We have a construction team on site.

To complete this campus, we need $39,500. Previously God has provided $300,000 to build and furnish this campus. Let us press on to victory! Let us complete this entire campus for the glory of Christ!

Will you invest in the Campaign for Central Africa, so that we can continue growing Trinity Biblical Institute as a network of institutes served by well-trained faculty and welcoming facilities across Central Africa? We are grateful for your partnership as we seek to lift up Christ among the nations, so that His disciples worship Him with awe and joy.
