Dear Partners in Ministry,

In the past two months, we have taught in five different locations in East and Central Africa. We have demonstrated that our plan to reach much of Central Africa is possible. By the grace of God, we can plant more theological schools in Central Africa using the model developed over the past five years. Next month we plan to return to each of the schools and teach these leaders a course in church planting.

Here is the fruit of your investment:

TBI Kasese, Western Uganda

TBI Gulu, Northern Uganda

TBI Kapchorwa, Eastern Uganda

TBI Endebes, Western Kenya

Kigale, Eastern Rwanda

MORE GREAT NEWS

God is blessing TCWM. As we minister to more and more people, we are stretched to expand and add additional branches of Trinity Biblical Institute. We look forward to bringing the Gospel and theological education to Tanzania, Cameroon, Ethiopia, Burundi, Congo, Zimbabwe, and Malawi.

To strengthen and expand this ministry, the directors of Trinity Center for World Mission have issued a call to Pastor Doug McNutt.

Doug was born in Georgia, but grew up as a missionary kid with his parents in Japan. After graduating from Westminster High School in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, he attended Covenant College, graduating with a Bachelors degree in English. While working for 5 years as a youth pastor and evangelist at a PCA church in Alabama he earned a Masters of Divinity from Beeson Divinity School on the campus of Samford University. After that, Doug planted a PCA church in the suburbs of Salt Lake City Utah before becoming a full time missionary with TCWM. He is married to Kelly and they have 5 children: Moses ('06), Makenna ('07), Miriam ('08), Genevieve ('10), and Judah ('13). Doug has a heart for missions and Africa in particular, having first gone to Uganda in 2002, in fact he and Kelly met there while on a missions trip. His hobbies include fishing, guitar playing, and taking scenic drives in the country. Doug and his family plan to move to Dahlonega for the next three months. Please pray for Doug as he helps raise his financial and prayer support. Your gift can help Doug begin ministry in Central Africa.
